Energy you can depend on

Season's greetings

Happy holidays from all of us at We Energies. Best wishes for a healthy holiday season and a safe new year. We'll see you in 2024!

FOCUS ON KEEPING WARM THIS WINTER

No matter how packed your schedule gets this holiday season, a smart thermostat will help you control the temperature in your home while you're on the go. Monitor your energy use while out doing your gift shopping or set your home to heat up while you're heading back from family gatherings, all from the convenience of your phone. Stay warm while saving money and energy by getting the best deals on smart thermostats this winter — some models are more than 50% off.

Ready to make the upgrade?

Hints for the holidays

We're here to help you savor the season

Here are some ideas to help you manage costs and improve energy efficiency.

It gets hot with a house full of guests. Lower your thermostat to 68 degrees to keep everyone comfortable and save on heating costs.

Headed to Grandma's house? Turn your furnace down to 65 degrees when you are away. You also can close blinds and curtains to hold in heat.

Keep the oven door shut. Check cooking progress in your oven by looking through the window. Opening the door for a few seconds lowers the temperature inside by as much as 25 F. Another pro tip: Turn off the oven early. Thanks to your oven's insulation, food will continue cooking for several minutes with the door closed.

Deck the halls with LEDs. Choose the best low-energy options for your festive displays using our holiday lighting calculator. Get started at www.we-energies.com/savings/holiday-calculator. And don't forget to use a timer for your indoor and outdoor lights.
